WHAT we will be covering:

- How to fulfill your role as a GSR (General Service Representative), District Committee Person (DCM) or other District Officer, or Committee Chair for your District or Area;
- The general service upside-down triangle structure explained and your role in carrying the message;
- The nuts and bolts: How District and Area meetings work and how you can participate;
- How you can participate on AA committees at the District and Area level; and
- Removing uncertainty and fear for those AA members interested in getting involved in general service.

WHAT we'll be doing:

- Providing you with practical training through short “how to” presentations, group discussion, and sharing by past trusted servants; and
- Teaching you about the practical responsibilities of trusted servants and how we practice AA's spiritual principles in general service.

WHO should attend:

- Anyone new to or currently participating in general service. ALL ARE WELCOME!!
